

Exploring Essex History: Essex Landscape

Galleywood Heritage Centre, Saturday 26 September 2026

Galleywood, The Common, Chelmsford, Essex, CM2 8TR

Join us for an exciting in-person event exploring research about the Essex landscape and its history

Programme:

1.00 - Welcome and announcements (Ken Crowe, VCH Essex)

1.10 – Professor Stephen Rippon:

‘Planning in the landscape: the legacy of Roman and medieval land surveyors in Essex’s countryside’

1.55 – Ken Crowe:

‘Monasteries in the Post-Dissolution Landscape’

2.35 - Afternoon Tea and Cake, Booksale and Raffle

3.20 – Emma Cannell:

‘Highlighting undervalued landscapes in our county: Essex Gardens Trust and our work in inventory research’

4.05 – Ken Worpole, writer and historian:

‘In Darkest England & The Way Out’

4.50 - Close

Booking: Conference tickets will be £15 (incl. tea), with booking via EventBrite (see link below).

Should you encounter difficulty with online
booking, please contact herbert.eiden@sas.ac.uk.

Please note lunch is not provided; please eat beforehand or bring your own. The venue will be open to delegates from 12.30pm, and the conference starts promptly at 1.00pm.

<https://VCH->

[Essex Exploring Essex History Essex Landscape.eventbrite.co.uk](https://VCH-Essex Exploring Essex History Essex Landscape.eventbrite.co.uk)